

Scrapbooks Forever August 2016 Newsletter

The weather is hot, hot, hot, and so are all the new things we have rolling in every day here at the shop. I can't believe it, but Christmas collections are starting to come in. The papers are really beautiful this year. But that does not mean we have skipped over Halloween and Fall. Lots of paper collections, dies and stamps are here for those as well.

New Sample Boards:

Be sure to open the attachment to see the photos.

Great impressions:

The fortune teller seeing many, many candles in the crystal ball is a hoot for a funny birthday and the back and front chicken peeking around the edge of the card is fun. Sweet kitty says "Thanks a Latte"

Northwoods:

Get Ready for Halloween with a wagon load of Jack-o lanterns, a cute pumpkin scarecrow, and this little witch can't decide which broom to fly.

Project of the Month:

A sweet little penguin made with Stampendous new metal stencils. There are more designs available to mix and match. A fun idea for Christmas or just winter fun!
