

Scrapbooks Forever September 2016 Newsletter

The calendar just rolled over into September and though we have been preparing for a couple months now, the Fall and Christmas crafting season is officially here! New paper collections, stamps, and dies for Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas are arriving every day and seem to be going out the door at about the same rate. The new releases for this year are extra fabulous and I have doubled down on my orders to try to keep up with demand.

No not shake and bake. These are new Art Impressions Mini Wobbles with cute new stamps to go with them. The stackers are darling animals that reveal as you slide out a peek-a-boo piece that can double as a bookmark gift. Interactive fun !

2) ON THE EDGE– 2:30 to 4:30

Gorgeous decorative dies that can mix and match to create different card edges. Why be straight and rectangular when you can be spectacular? Lovely poinsettia design, scallops, and more.

Saturday October 29

All the glory of layered designs with NO FUSSY CUTTING ! YAY! These beautiful woodland scenes punch out and stack with pop dots. Nestled on a glittery embossed forest with new Christmas foliage dies embellishments.

4) TREAT TOTES – Noon to 2:00

Goody bags made with the Goody Bag creation tool and glassine paper, with a cool see-through window. Won't grease through if you put homemade cookies inside. New Waffle Flower die for a darling little bag with a handle. AND don't forget....I will have candy to put inside!

5) TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS– 2:30 to 4:30

Beautiful Christmas scenery – a snowman by the lake, a sleigh gliding up the country lane, an old fashioned truck loaded with trees in a forest scene. Easy coloring and a whole lot of glitter!
