NEW PRODUCTS IN STOCK NOW

1) Chapter One Tim Holtz and Sizzix release. These are the newest dies for 2020. I got on the list to have them first, so they will all be on my shelves and ready to sell or ship January 1.

2) Heartfelt Creations new window dies and matching card blanks. These are fun and can be used for A2 cards as well as the big 6 x 6. Even has a set of hinge dies that make the windows open. And I love the Create a 'scape stamp and die sets. Make endless combinations of your own outdoor scenes!

3) Pinkfresh Studio is one of my favorites right now with a new release of dies in their tag series. A new small interchangeable tag set like the big one I used in 2019 make and takes. An egg shaped tag set for spring and Easter. Striped card panel dies that make a full panel or a frame. Just put colored papers to show through the cuts for endless striped backgrounds. See this month's project of the month for samples.

4) New Valentine papers. Great cut-a-part sheets for card making.

5) New St. Patrick's paper also perfect for card making.

6) New Year's 2020 paper and stickers.

7) All the new Lawn Fawn release is here. Fun new Valentine's. My favorite is the reveal wheel typewriter and lots of messages for the little typewriter to say for all occasions. And the little heart shaker tags are so much fun to make!

8) Graphic 45 Fashion Forward – fun for making calendars. Plus we have lots of other calendar making stuff, including blank single sheets of calendar grids and spiral bound blanks. Authentique and Bo Bunny calendar papers , too.

9) We R Memory Keepers "The Works" tool. 15 different tools in one convenient tool about the size of a 12 inch paper slicer. Great space saver at retreats!

10) Lots of new Frozen and Star Wars papers and stickers just in time for the movie releases.

11) Echo Park Love my Cat and Love my Dog Collections

12) Carta Bella Fish are Friends collection. This should be great for our brand new Aquarium we are getting here in Branson in 2020.

13) In case you missed them, The Nuvo Glitter Markers and the Picket Fence brushes are two of our favorite things that came out in 2019. Still in stock and still a fabulous "must have".

14) New Spellbinders cabinet dies and inserts. We fell in love with these in the Christmas 3D foldable cards and now there are new shapes and inserts for Valentine's. Plus you can turn them into mini books instead of cards.

15) Another favorite is the Make Art Stay-tion. A metal work surface with magnets and a magnetic ruler. A must for anyone who likes to use stencils. Together with the Picket Fence brushes has made a stencil junkie out of me!

16) New Warrior collection. Medieval theme looking perfect for Game of Thrones style.

17) New Military kits.

18) Doodlebug Winter Wonderland. I love it and I ordered it all.

19) New 3D punchouts. Winter theme in light blues with little animals and snowmen. And “real” cats and dogs.

20) Corner punches that make the double slit to slip your pictures in to a mat, and now also in a decorative edge instead of just straight.

21) If you are like me, and not done with your Halloween, Fall, and Christmas pages, remember we keep a good stock of all those themes year round. I ordered extra of all the most popular ones to keep you going.

New Sample Boards

Memory Box

Brand new dies and even a beautiful new 3D embossing folder. Gorgeous heart themes that are great even beyond Valentine’s. And if you are addicted to the “whittle animals” like me, there is a cute new panda, giraffe, and hedgehog.

Lawn Fawn

Photos show the cute heart tag, reveal wheel typewriter and the Stud Puffins!
